N.H.S. Crest Becomes Reality

Napoleon High School finally has a crest! Through the combined efforts of the Buckeye Staff, the Student Council, and the student body, the long-time dream was made a reality. Student designs were submitted to a screening committee of Dan Freytag, "Buckeye" Copy Editor; Dud Reiser, Student Council President; Jane Williamson, "Buckeye" Editor-in-Chief; Mr. Hermler, Student Council Adviser; and Mr. Hoeffel, "Buckeye" Adviser. This committee selected four sketches and had them redrawn by student artists Rick Arps, Greg Rudolph, and Margo Vajen. These four were then presented to Student Council, and after discussion and debate, a school crest was chosen.

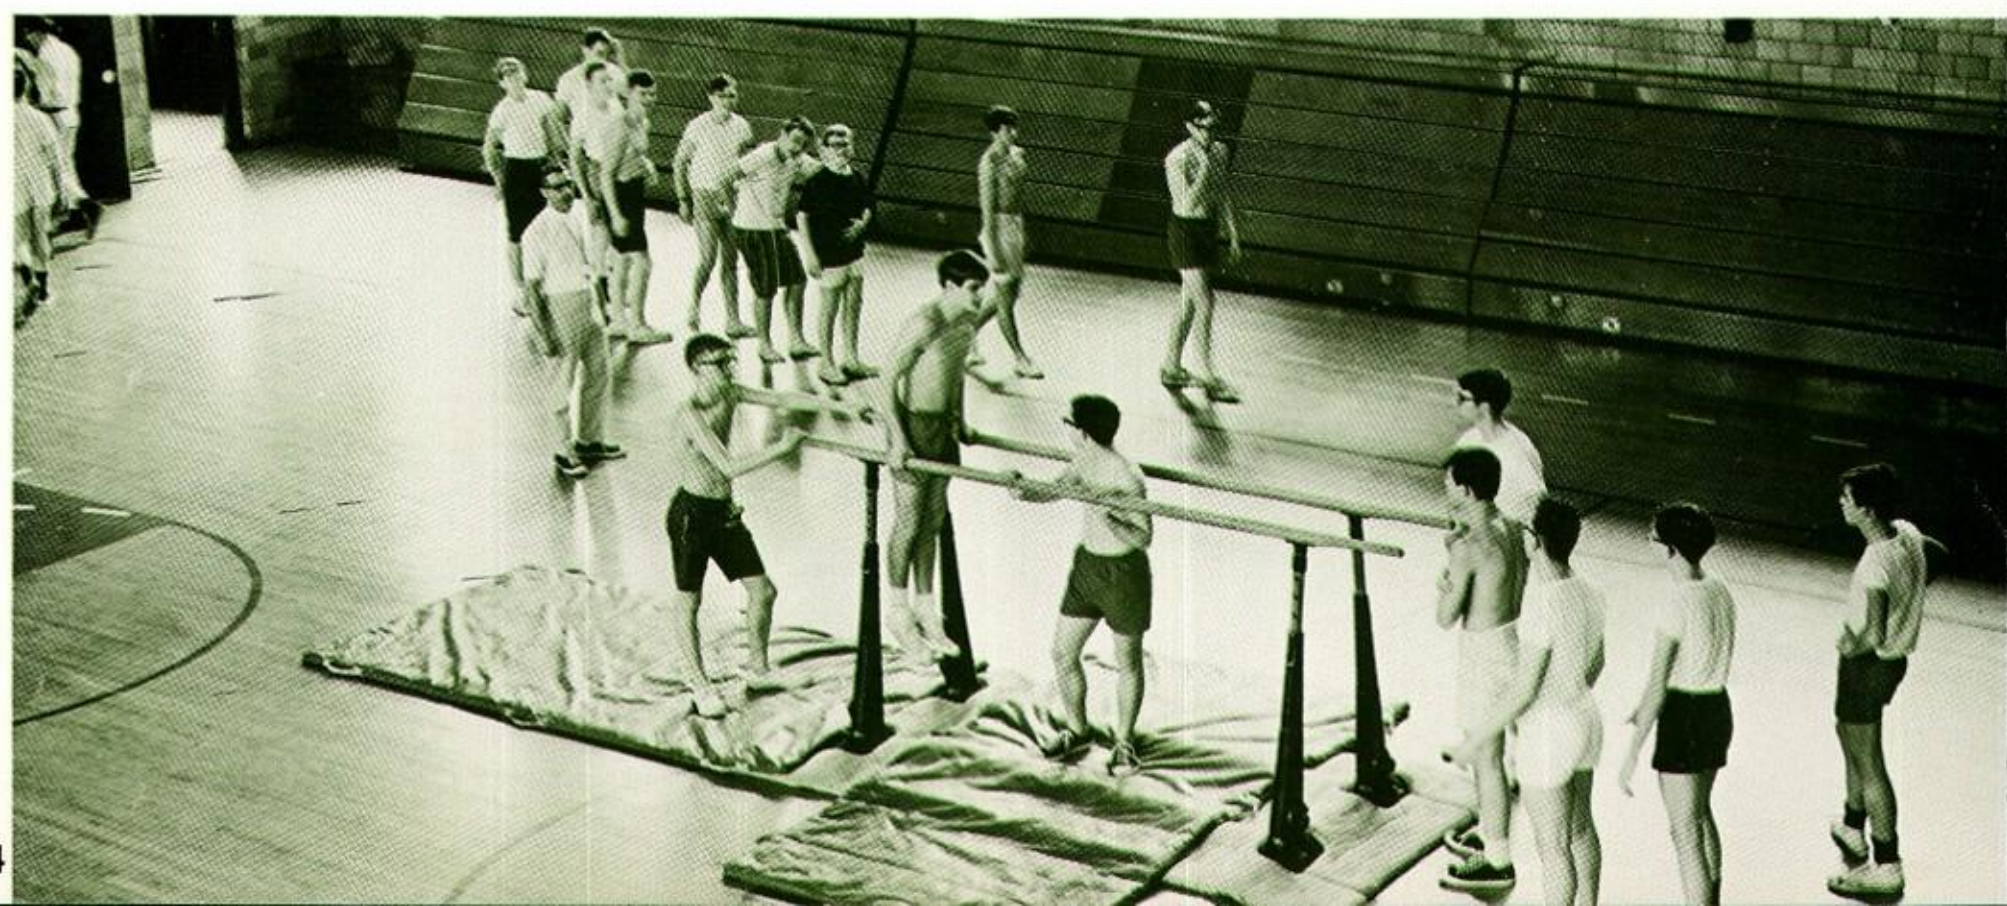

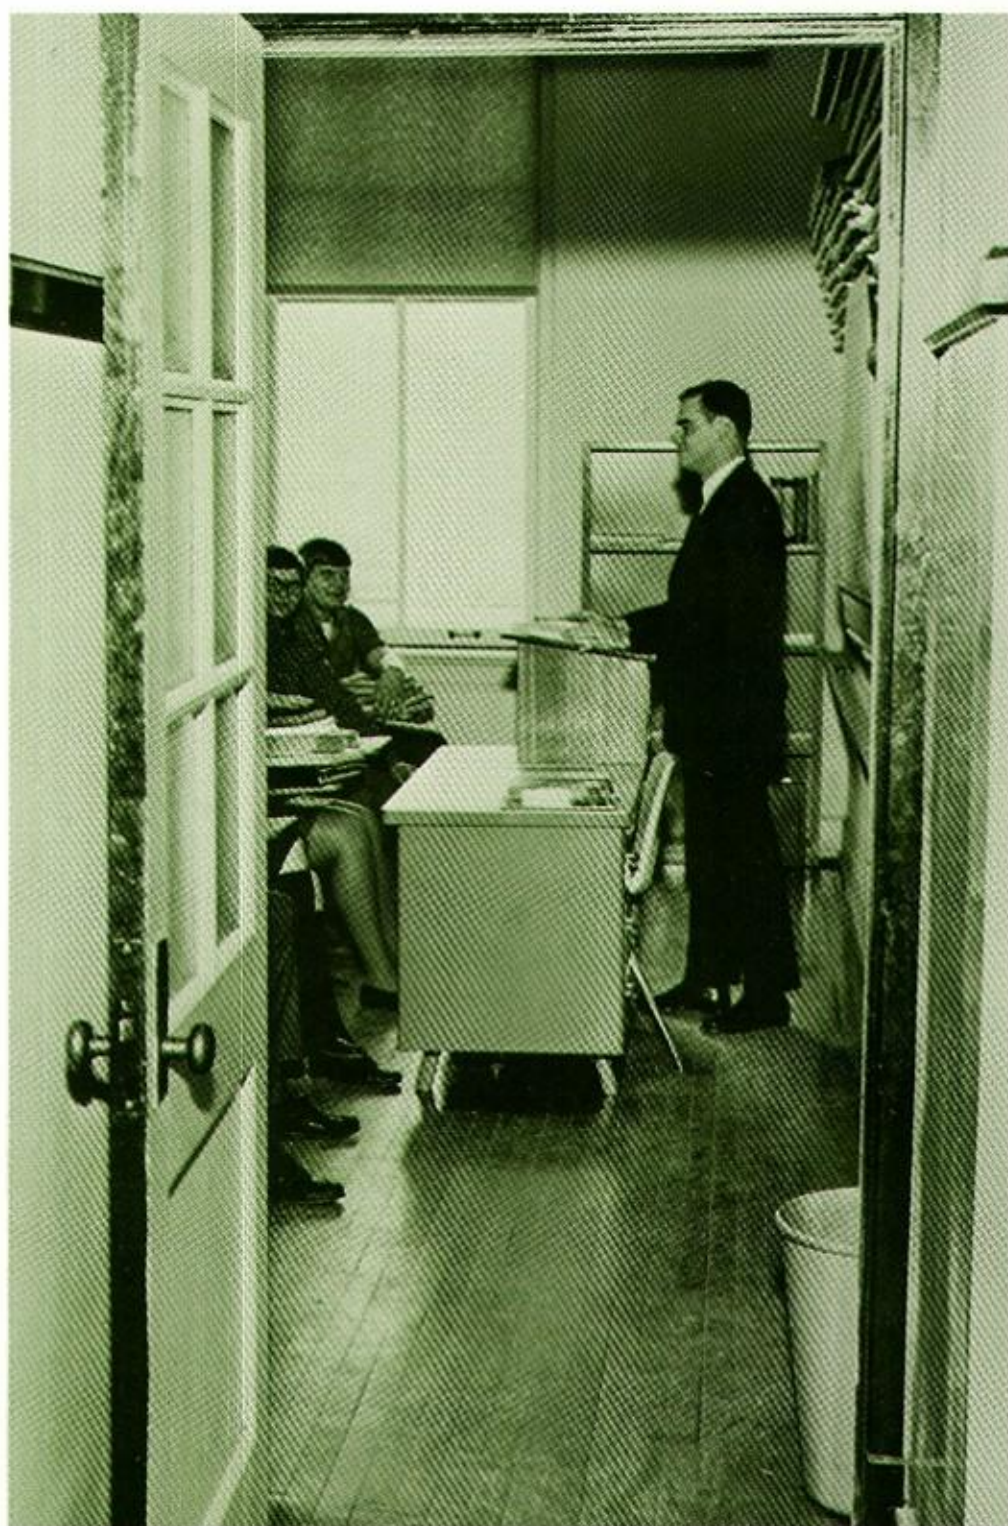

The new crest embodies symbols which represent the 1967 "Buckeye" theme—our school in Academics, Activities, and Athletics. Atop the crest is our wildcat mascot representing us as we are known to many. This crest is used for the first time this year, and we hope it will continue to be a vital part of N.H.S. for many years to come.

ADMINISTRATION

E. A. WHEATON, SUPERINTENDENT

E. A. Wheaton Named As New Superintendent of Napoleon Schools

Mr. E. A. Wheaton, former Superintendent of Midview Local District in Grafton, Ohio, was named to succeed Mr. Robert Durbin as Superintendent of Napoleon City Schools. As superintendent of schools, Mr. Wheaton was the administrative head representing the Napoleon City School Board in all matters concerning the school. He directed the board in the formulation of policy and in the interpretation of this policy to the community. The superintendent also served as the educational leader both in the school and in the community.

ORA GREEN
Secretary

"Science has given to us the highest standard of living ever achieved by man. It has also given to us the most complicated problems in our learning to live together.

We in the Napoleon Schools sincerely hope that you have received the necessary tools to meet the challenge of an ever-changing world.

Congratulations, seniors, on a job well done and come back to see us often."

E. A. Wheaton

John L. Johnson Appointed As First Assistant Superintendent

Due to the growth of the Napoleon school system and the requirements of the modern educational system the position of Assistant Superintendent was created. Assuming this new post in January of 1967 was Mr. John L. Johnson, Principal of Napoleon High School for fifteen and one half years.

Mr. Johnson's new position included the supervision of curriculum and personnel. Working with teacher groups and principals to develop new curriculum and to improve techniques and procedures were two major aspects of the Assistant Superintendent's duties.

"It is the purpose of Napoleon High School to provide the proper atmosphere and opportunities for learning experiences. These situations must stimulate the individual student to grow academically, physically, emotionally, and morally so that he may fulfill his purpose as an individual and as a citizen of the world community.

May I remind you seniors of three attributes for successful living which were stressed in the unfolding of your high school education—personal integrity, a sense of responsibility, and a willingness to work. I urge the underclassmen to assume an active part in maintaining the high academic and moral standards set by the past classes of Napoleon High School."

John L. Johnson

JOHN L. JOHNSON, ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

"Each of us gets one chance in this world. We are exactly what we choose to make of ourselves.

Time is life. Therefore, don't waste it. Use it. Make the most of it. Fill every minute with the most constructive possible activity.

Knowledge is power. Therefore, learn all you can. Undertake the quest for truth, which is the purpose of education. You cannot afford to dislike learning nor pass it up, any more than you can afford to do without the food essential to your body's health."

W. Mossing

WILLIAM MOSSING, PRINCIPAL

William Mossing Assumes New Duties as Principal of N.H.S.

RUBY HATHAWAY
Secretary

Mr. William Mossing was promoted to the position of principal in January, 1967. He had taught in Napoleon High School for eighteen and one half years. Before being appointed Principal of Napoleon High School, Mr. Mossing served as Athletic Director and Director of the Diversified Cooperative Training Program. Scheduling classes; supervising all high school personnel, both teachers and students; promoting curriculum development; and administrating activities within the high school were all parts of Mr. Mossing's duties as Principal of N.H.S.

Freshmen Gain Experience

One hundred and thirty inexperienced freshmen entered the hallowed halls of Napoleon High School in the fall of 1963. Under the leadership of John Heckler, president; Mick Gerken, vice-president; Mary Dell Austermiller, secretary; and Jerry Lange, treasurer, we gained much needed experience and confidence in participating in the academic, athletic, and extracurricular activities of Napoleon High School. Sue Austermiller represented our class as Freshman Attendant for the 1963 Homecoming Parade, Game, and Dance. The first class project was the Homecoming float, "Let's Play the Tigers Ragged," which proved that we had class spirit. Freshman cheerleaders also did much to promote spirit for our freshman football and basketball teams. The cheerleaders were Sue Austermiller, Bebe Bokerman, Dianne Meyer, Barb Stevens, and Susie Walker. Emilie Pilliod received special recognition for placing sixth in the State Scholarship Test in English 9.

Sophomores Select Rings

The fall of 1964 found the class of '67 eager to make our class remembered. Our first duty was the election of officers. We elected John Franz, president; Mike Rothgery, vice-president; Emilie Pilliod, secretary; and Sue Austermiller, treasurer. As proof of our ability, our float, "We're 'Dragon' Home a Victory" won first place in the Homecoming Parade. Representing our class as Sophomore Attendant was Cheryl Knepley. Athletic activities saw many sophomores in action. Our reserve basketball team finished the season with a 13-3 record. As sophomores we were faced with the task of selecting class rings. A committee of sophomores chose three class ring styles from which the entire class selected one ring. The ring chosen by the class could then be obtained with or without a black onyx stone. The year came to a close June 4. As a class we were looking forward to becoming upperclassmen.

Jrs. Create Tahitian Twilight

As juniors we welcomed nineteen Florida juniors to our school. The class was lead by Larry Egbert, president; Isabel Suydam, vice-president; Nancy Parks, secretary; and Mary Dell Austermiller, treasurer. Once again, at Homecoming, our class proved its ingenuity by building a first place float, "L.C. is Stretching their Luck." Nancy Parks was elected Junior Attendant. Many juniors participated in the production of Pioneer Go Home in November. The main project for this year was the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme, "Tahitian Twilight," was depicted by an enormous, golden Tiki god. An actual waterfall and stream near the entrance were spanned by a bridge. Table decorations, such as coconuts and exotic flowers, carried out the theme. In May, thirteen juniors were elected to National Honor Society on the basis of scholarship (above 3.5), leadership, character, and service. They were Mary Dell Austermiller, Sue Austermiller, Diane Eberle, Dick Fisher, Dan Freytag, Shirley Johnson, Judy Neuhouser, Emilie Pilliod, Linda Rettig, Ken Steward, Tom Wesche, Jane Williamson, and Jean Zachrich.

Seniors Graduate 144, June 9

On September 6, 1966, we returned as seniors to walk the halls of N.H.S. for one final year. For our fourth year of high school, we elected the following officers: Tom Wesche, president; John Heckler, vice-president; Karen Leaders, secretary; and Dan Freytag, treasurer. Under their leadership, we constructed our Homecoming float, "Let's Jump over B. G. and Pocket a Victory"; it placed third in the float contest. Karen Leaders and Nancy Parks were selected by the senior boys to reign as Homecoming Queen and Senior Attendant, respectively. Sue Austermiller and Susie Walker served as cheerleaders for all four years of high school. Fifteen members of the senior class held positions on the Buckeye and Wildcats Roar staffs. Under the direction of Miss Jackman, the class of '67 presented Pygmalion on April 5 and 7. Senior membership in National Honor Society totaled 34 with the induction of 20 new seniors in May.

With an undefeated season, the Wildcat football team won an undisputed league championship. The basketball team placed second in the league, and the wrestling team won the league championship. Our undefeated Cat track team finished the season by taking first place in both the NWOAL Track Meet and the N.H.S. Gold Medal Relays. In other spring sports, the baseball team shared the league championship with Liberty Center, and the golf team finished second. As a result of the outstanding performances of all our athletic teams, we won the coveted NWOAL All-Sports Trophy.

The class of 1967, with 144 seniors, was the 92nd class to graduate from Napoleon High School. Our class motto was "An hour of triumph comes to those who watch and wait." We chose navy blue and powder blue as our colors and the white rose as our class flower. Baccalaureate was held June 4 at 8:15 p.m.; Rev. Issac Johnston delivered the address entitled "The Winds of Life." Dr. W. Noel Johnston, president of Defiance College, was the featured speaker at Commencement, which was held in the auditorium, June 9, 1967.

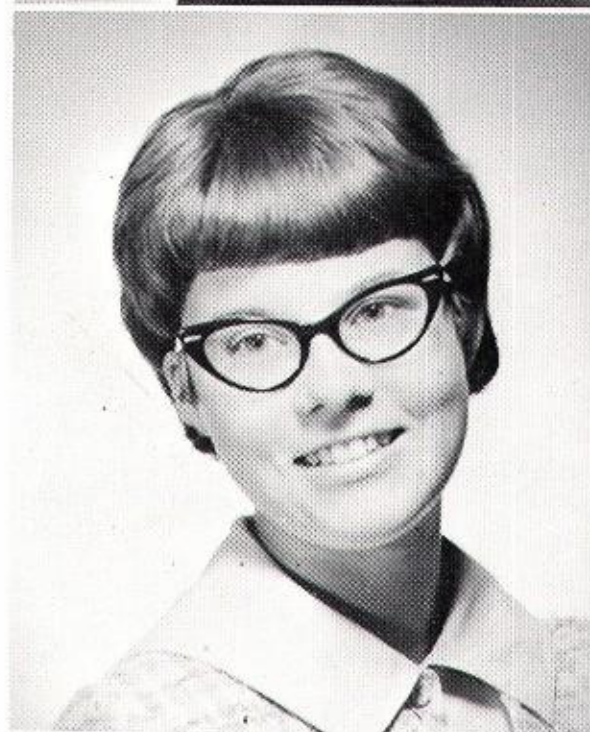

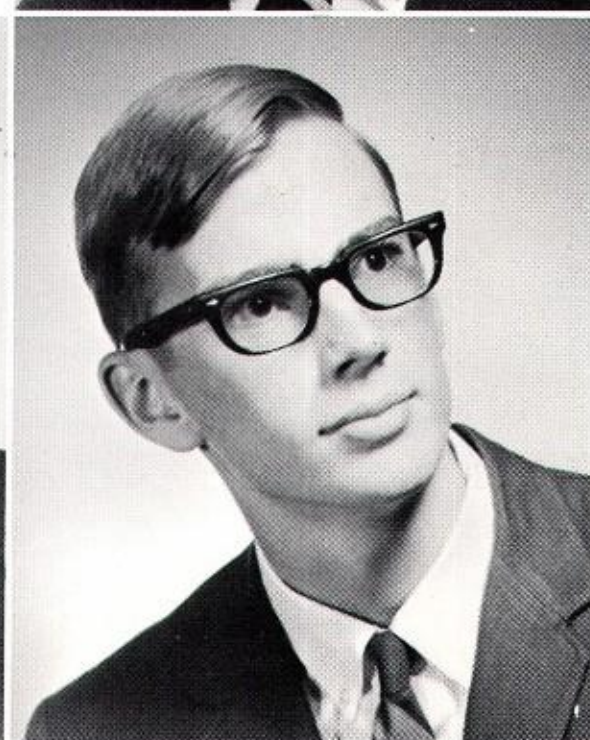

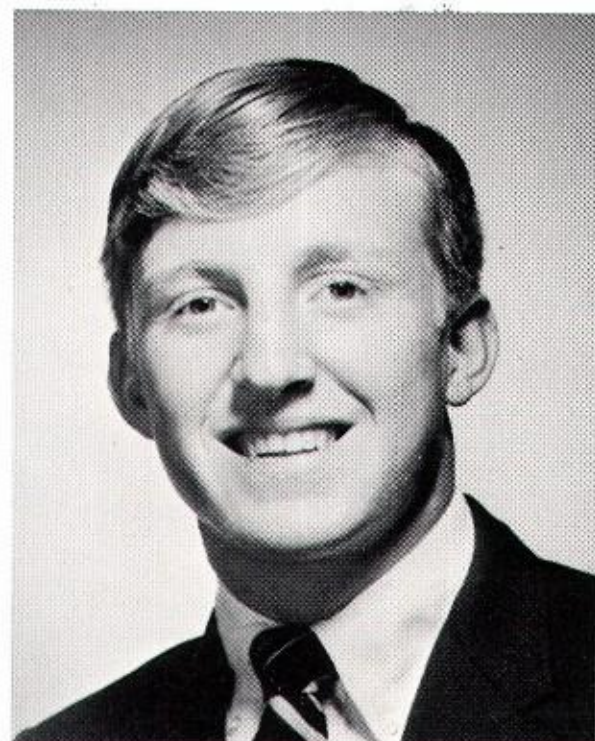

N.H.S. Hosts First Exchange Student

For the first time in the history of Napoleon High School, we had a foreign exchange student. Hermine Thober, a native of West Berlin, Germany, came to America through the International Christian Youth Exchange. After her arrival in Philadelphia, Pa., she toured many parts of the East and Midwest with the Donald Maders, the Napoleon family with whom she made her home during the year. Hermine was a delegate to the World Affairs Institute in Cincinnati and spoke to many community groups throughout the year.

JUNIORS

Juniors Produce Play, Prom

On September 6, 1966, we entered Napoleon High School at last as upperclassmen. One hundred and seventy-nine strong, we realized that as juniors we were only one year away from being seniors. During the early part of the fall, we elected the officers to lead us during this third and very important year of high school. Darlene Bevelhymmer was elected president, and Denise Fortner served as vice-president. Pat Reimund became our secretary, and Bonnie Knipp was elected treasurer. Assisting with our class projects were advisers Mr. Flory, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Fruchey, Mr. Haas, Mrs. F. Russell, Mr. Shears, and Mrs. Warden.

We eagerly plunged into the Homecoming activities with the hope of increasing our class treasury by building a prize-winning float, and our "Let's Seal A Victory" did win first place in the float contest. The Junior Attendant was Jean Russell. After Homecoming was over, we began the tedious process of presenting the Junior Class Play, "Life With Father." The production, directed by Miss Alberts, combined the efforts of over 40 juniors to create a successful Junior Class Play.

Our class was well represented in sports, as we had lettermen in football, cross-county, basketball, wrestling, track, baseball, and golf. Joyce Fenter and Jean Russell were Varsity Cheerleaders; Peggy Cline and Sue Mossing served on the Reserve cheering squad. Shirley Milliman marched as a majorette with the Napoleon High School Band.

Thirteen juniors were inducted into National Honor Society during the annual induction ceremony held May 8th. Newly elected members were the following: Mary Beth Austermiller, Marianne Bischoff, Mary Beckelman, Gary Bostelman, Janice Eberle, Denise Fortner, Ann Genuit, Gary Haas, Terri King, Tim Memmer, Pat Reimund, Ray Sanholtz, and Carol Shasteen.

The big event of the year for us was creating the Junior-Senior Prom. Using the theme "Sea Enchantment," we decorated the gym as an underwater paradise by covering the ceiling with fish net, hanging fish from the net, constructing a sunken ship for the band, painting murals on the side walls of the gym, and using treasure chests for table decorations.

After having successfully completed a hectic, but rewarding, year at Napoleon High School, we left the school for the summer with the knowledge that upon our return in the fall, we would be seniors.

Soph.'s Select Class Rings

Having successfully completed our freshman year, we felt much wiser and more experienced as we began our second year at N.H.S. We eagerly anticipated the many new experiences which awaited us during our sophomore year—such exciting things as driver's licenses for a few, class rings for many, and new classes for all.

Early in the year we elected Bill Meyers as our class president and Jeff DeTray as vice-president; Elaine Gerken served as class secretary and Jo Ann Meter as treasurer. Under their competent leadership and with the able assistance of our advisers, Miss Alberts, Mr. Hermiller, Mr. Hoeffel, Miss Jackman, Mr. Neville, and Mr. Weaner, we confidently undertook our class projects.

Homecoming was one of the busiest times of the year for us. We elected Rita Westhoven to represent us in the 1967 Homecoming Court; built a second-place float, "Happiness Is A Nap Victory," using "Snoopy" and his dog house to depict the theme; worked concessions at the Homecoming Football Game; and won the "School Spirit" award by having the largest percentage of any class for clean-up the Saturday morning after a home football game.

As sophomores, we were eligible for membership in many of the school clubs, such as G.A.A., Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, and "N" Club. Our boys won letters for their participation in reserve and varsity sports while our girls lent their support by serving as reserve cheerleaders and majorettes.

In the classroom we were kept occupied with new discoveries in the biology lab, complex styles of authors in American literature, and difficult theorems to be proved in geometry. In addition to our classroom work, we took the Ohio Survey Test, which measured our verbal and mathematical achievement levels. On March 16 and 17, we took District State Scholarship tests and later sent a team of selected sophomores to Bowling Green State University to take further tests for state placement and recognition.

As our sophomore year drew to a close on June 8, we looked back on our second year at N.H.S. with a feeling of accomplishment and looked forward to our junior year with anxious anticipation.

FRESHMEN

Freshmen Experience Busy Year

We entered the halls of N.H.S. on September 6, 1966, as a class of 193 timid, but eager, freshmen. We were willing to discover all the long anticipated wonders of high school. Our first class election was held early in the fall. We elected Rob Downey as president and Marlowe Witt as vice-president. Heather Fortner served as secretary, while Dave Yarnell was our treasurer. Our advisers were Mrs. Bridgett, Mr. Gisler, Mr. Hetrick, Mr. Sasaki, Mrs. Short, and Mr. Snyder.

Our first experience with class projects came at Homecoming time. Class unity was evident as we banded together to build our first Homecoming float. Although "Time Is Running Out" didn't win first place, it did, nevertheless, show that we would be in strong contention for first place honors in the float contest in future years. Mary Mossing represented our class as Freshman Attendant.

Many of our boys participated in football and basketball; both teams showed great potential for the coming three years. Freshman cheerleaders were Debbie Campbell, Cheri Freeman, Ann Helberg, Janis Huston, Mary Mossing, and Chris Young.

As freshmen we began our high school education by taking such subjects as general science, health, Latin I, French I, English IX, Shorthand I, Algebra I, Typing I, band, and choir. Several classes of English IX, health, and Algebra I met during the 4N period; the students enrolled in these courses had their lunch hour during the 4th period and attended classes during the regular lunch hour.

For many of us, our first year in high school was largely a year of learning—learning not only to study, to take notes, to take tests, and to understand each teacher as an individual rather than a stereotype, but also learning to talk in study hall without being caught, to crowd in the cafeteria line, and to open our messy lockers without having everything fall out. Yes, our freshman year at N.H.S. was frightening at times but very rewarding at others. There were times when we weren't sure if we would make it, but at the end of the school year we were convinced that all the months of agony as freshmen were worth it. The thought of seeming wise and learned to next year's freshman class made us eagerly await our return, in the fall of '67 as sophomores of N.H.S.

Council Experiences Active Session

Under the capable leadership of Dud Reiser, Council president, and Mr. Hermiller, adviser, the 70-member Student Council experienced a busy '66-'67 session. Most significant of the body's accomplishments was the organization of the 1966 Homecoming. Other major activities included the preparation for the annual Snake Dance, the sponsoring of a faculty-WTOD disc jockey basketball game, and the recognition of Mr. Johnson for his 15 years of service as principal.

Special projects completed by the Council were the collection of contributions for both the Steve Beattie Fund and the WTOD Penny Pitch and the selection of an official Napoleon High School crest. In addition, Student Council regulated the sponsoring of post-game dances, designated dress-up days, provided for the Christmas decorations, and chose assemblies for the '67-'68 school year. Finally, to solidify the bonds between the legislative body and the student publications, members voted to admit the editor of the "Wildcats Roar" as a permanent representative.

Officers

Dud Reiser, President; Cheryl Knepley, Secretary; Mr. Hermiller, Adviser; Bill Small, Treasurer; Greg Schuette, Vice-President.

33 Take Honor Society Pledge

Having been judged by the Napoleon High School faculty as possessing desirable qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, 20 seniors and 13 juniors were inducted into the C. D. Brillhart Chapter of the National Honor Society. Juniors with a 3.6 scholastic point-average and seniors with a 3.0 scholastic point-average were eligible for membership.

May 8 marked the date of the annual induction ceremony, which the candidates' parents and student body attended. Participating in the program were 14 old members, 33 new members, and superintendent E. A. Wheaton, who addressed the inductees and presented them with pins and membership cards. Featured student speakers were Mary Dell Austermiller, Sue Austermiller, Emilie Pilliod, and Jane Williamson. Richard Fisher served as master of ceremonies and Tom Wesche administered the society pledge.

As a service, the honorary society acted as hosts and guides for the annual Visitation Night for parents of high school students.

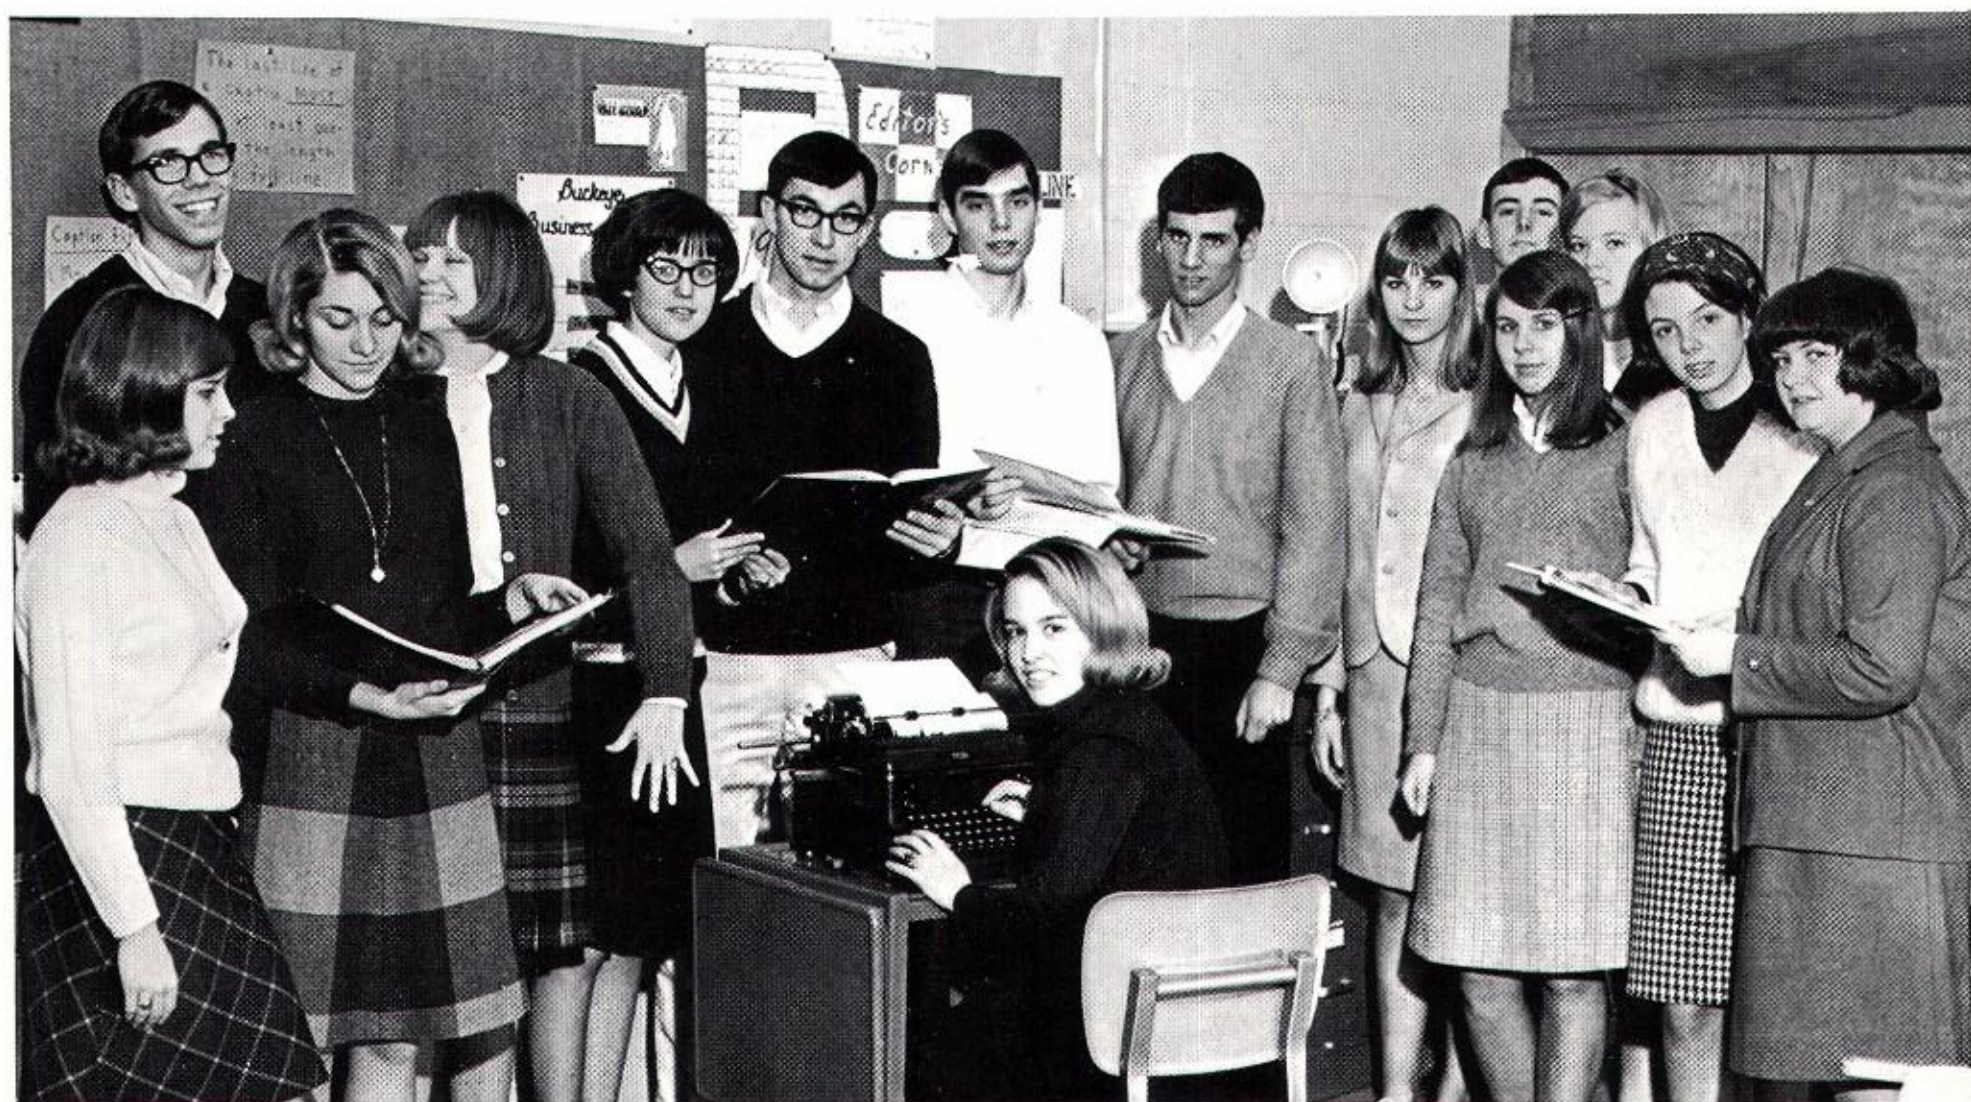

Officers

'Buckeye' Features School Crest

Utilizing the theme, "School Life—Academics, Athletics, and Activities," the 1967 Buckeye Staff, under the leadership of Mr. Hoeffel, Adviser, and Jane Williamson, Editor, produced the fifty-first "Buckeye." New ideas incorporated into the book were the inclusion of a four-page academic section, the use of a school crest on the cover, the placing of senior pictures in panels, and the addition of eight pages. The staff also wrote more copy for the yearbook's 12 sections, employed colored duotones in the opening section, and presented four-color endsheets.

The eight members of the editorial staff were Jane Williamson, Editor-in-Chief; Shirley Johnson, Administration, Faculty, and Seniors; Pam Frease, Underclassmen and Jr. High; Keith Miller, Organizations and Photographer; Dick Fisher, Sports; Cindy Collier; Features; Sue Austermiller, Features Assistant; and Dan Freytag, Copy Editor. Comprising the Business Staff were Mick Gerken, Bebe Bokerman, Debbie Gessner, Joy Hahn, Cheryl Hockman, Emilie Pilliod, and Dave Zachrich.

'Wildcats Roar' Expands Circulation

Under Editor David Bassett and Adviser Mr. Hoeffel, the nine-member newspaper staff planned, wrote, typed, and produced the "Wildcats Roar," which was distributed to 1000 subscribers. Reflecting the motto, "Service, Information, and Entertainment," the seven editions of the paper, which consisted of six or eight pages, were published by the following selected students: David Bassett, Editor; Roger Borstelman, Managing Editor; Mary Dell Austermiller, News; Sue Austermiller, Features and Defiance Crescent News correspondent; Cheryl Knepley, Features and Northwest-Signal columnist; Larry Egbert, Sports; Joyce Fahringer and Kathy Hahn, Typists; and John Saxton, Production.

Innovations developed by this year's staff included a Pictorial cover on the Homecoming issue and the use of more pictures to improve page layout. As staff activities, they journeyed to B.G.S.U. for a newspaper workshop, sent the "Wildcats Roar" to B.G.S.U. for judging in competition with other Northwestern Ohio high school newspapers, and obtained the former band instrument room for a staff workroom.

Quill & Scroll Inducts 10 Seniors

Ten students were inducted into the Napoleon Chapter of Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists. Candidates admitted into membership ranked in the upper third of the senior class, did superior work for a high school publication, were recommended by the school publications adviser, and were approved by the International Executive Secretary.

As a weekly news and information service, a Quill and Scroll Bulletin Board was maintained by members Sue Austermiller and Cheryl Knepley. Located near the west entrance of the main building, this news board featured pictures, congratulatory announcements, and information concerning area institutions of higher education.

Members of the honorary society received a gold pin with their editorial staff position engraved on it, a membership card, and a subscription to Quill and Scroll magazine. Mr. Hoeffel, publications adviser, served as coordinator of the club.

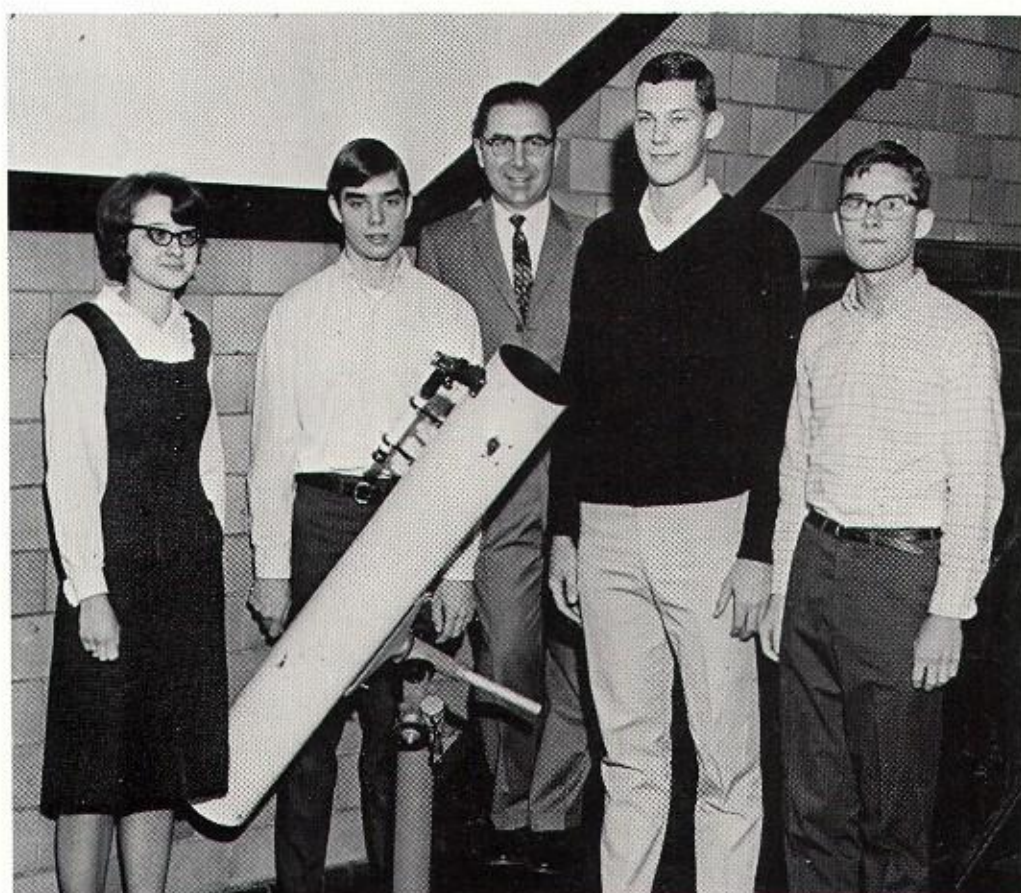

Jane Williamson, Vice-President; David Bassett, President; Cheryl Knepley, Secretary-Treasurer.

Science Club Tours Local Plants

Providing an outlet for scientific interest, the Science Club attracted 11 junior and senior students.

Various programs for the year included a tour of the Automatic Feed Co. of Napoleon. Mr. Bill Beck, president of the company, took the club members through the plant and spoke to them on the numerous phases of operation. In April, members were able to visit Campbell Soup Co. By touring the facilities of this local industry, the students were able to understand more intimately the vast complexity and importance of the food industry.

Under the supervision of Mr. Haas, club adviser, the Science Club again presented its annual Science Awards as recognition to outstanding students in each of the four classes. On Recognition Day a total of 20 students were presented with awards. Recipients were chosen from applicants on the basis of academic achievement, especially in areas of science and mathematics.

for Needy Henry County Children

Dedicated to the high ideals of Christian character, the Tri-Hi-Y Club this year attracted 90 sophomore, junior, and senior girls. Early in the year, the club inducted into membership Hermine Thober, German exchange student. After the ceremonious induction, Hermine spoke to the group on German life.

Highlighting the year's activities was a Christmas party for the underprivileged children of Henry County. Each child received several gifts, presented to him by Santa Claus, portrayed by John Heckler. Another significant club project was the sponsoring of Happiness Week, January 30 to February 3. During this week club members adorned the halls of N.H.S. with happiness posters, distributed happiness buttons to students, and presented the serial, "How the Grinch Stole Happiness."

In March the Tri-Hi-Y presented to the entire student body a religiously-oriented Easter assembly. Also, during the year members attended two Tri-Hi-Y-"N" Club Fun Nights, which afforded much enjoyment for all involved. Mrs. K. Russell served as adviser.

Hi-Y Hears 3 Area Speakers

Mr. Shinn, new adviser of the Hi-Y Club, ably led the 27 members through an interesting year of Christian fellowship, friendship, and recreation. After an organizational meeting, at which officers were elected, the club met in November to hear Mr. John Fruchey, Napoleon Fire Chief, speak on fire prevention. Mr. Fruchey also showed several films of recent area fires.

At the December meeting, Father Rapp spoke to the group on the joys of Christmas. His talk was entitled, "The Tensil of Christmas".

Activities for January were centered around athletics, for early in the month, movies of Cleveland Browns' football games were shown. At a second meeting, the club gathered in the gym for an evening of basketball.

In March a talk was given by a highway patrolman on career opportunities in the Highway Patrol. Activities for the year were culminated by a club softball game held in late spring.

'N' Club Co-Hosts Fun Nights

Comprised of all boys who have earned a varsity or reserve letter award, the membership of the "N" Club numbered 115. Under the leadership of Mr. Buckenmeyer, the club strove to achieve its purpose of encouraging good sportsmanship, promoting good citizenship, and fostering a genuine interest in all varsity athletic competition. With this purpose firmly in mind, members attended to the sale of programs at the five home football contests and twelve home basketball games.

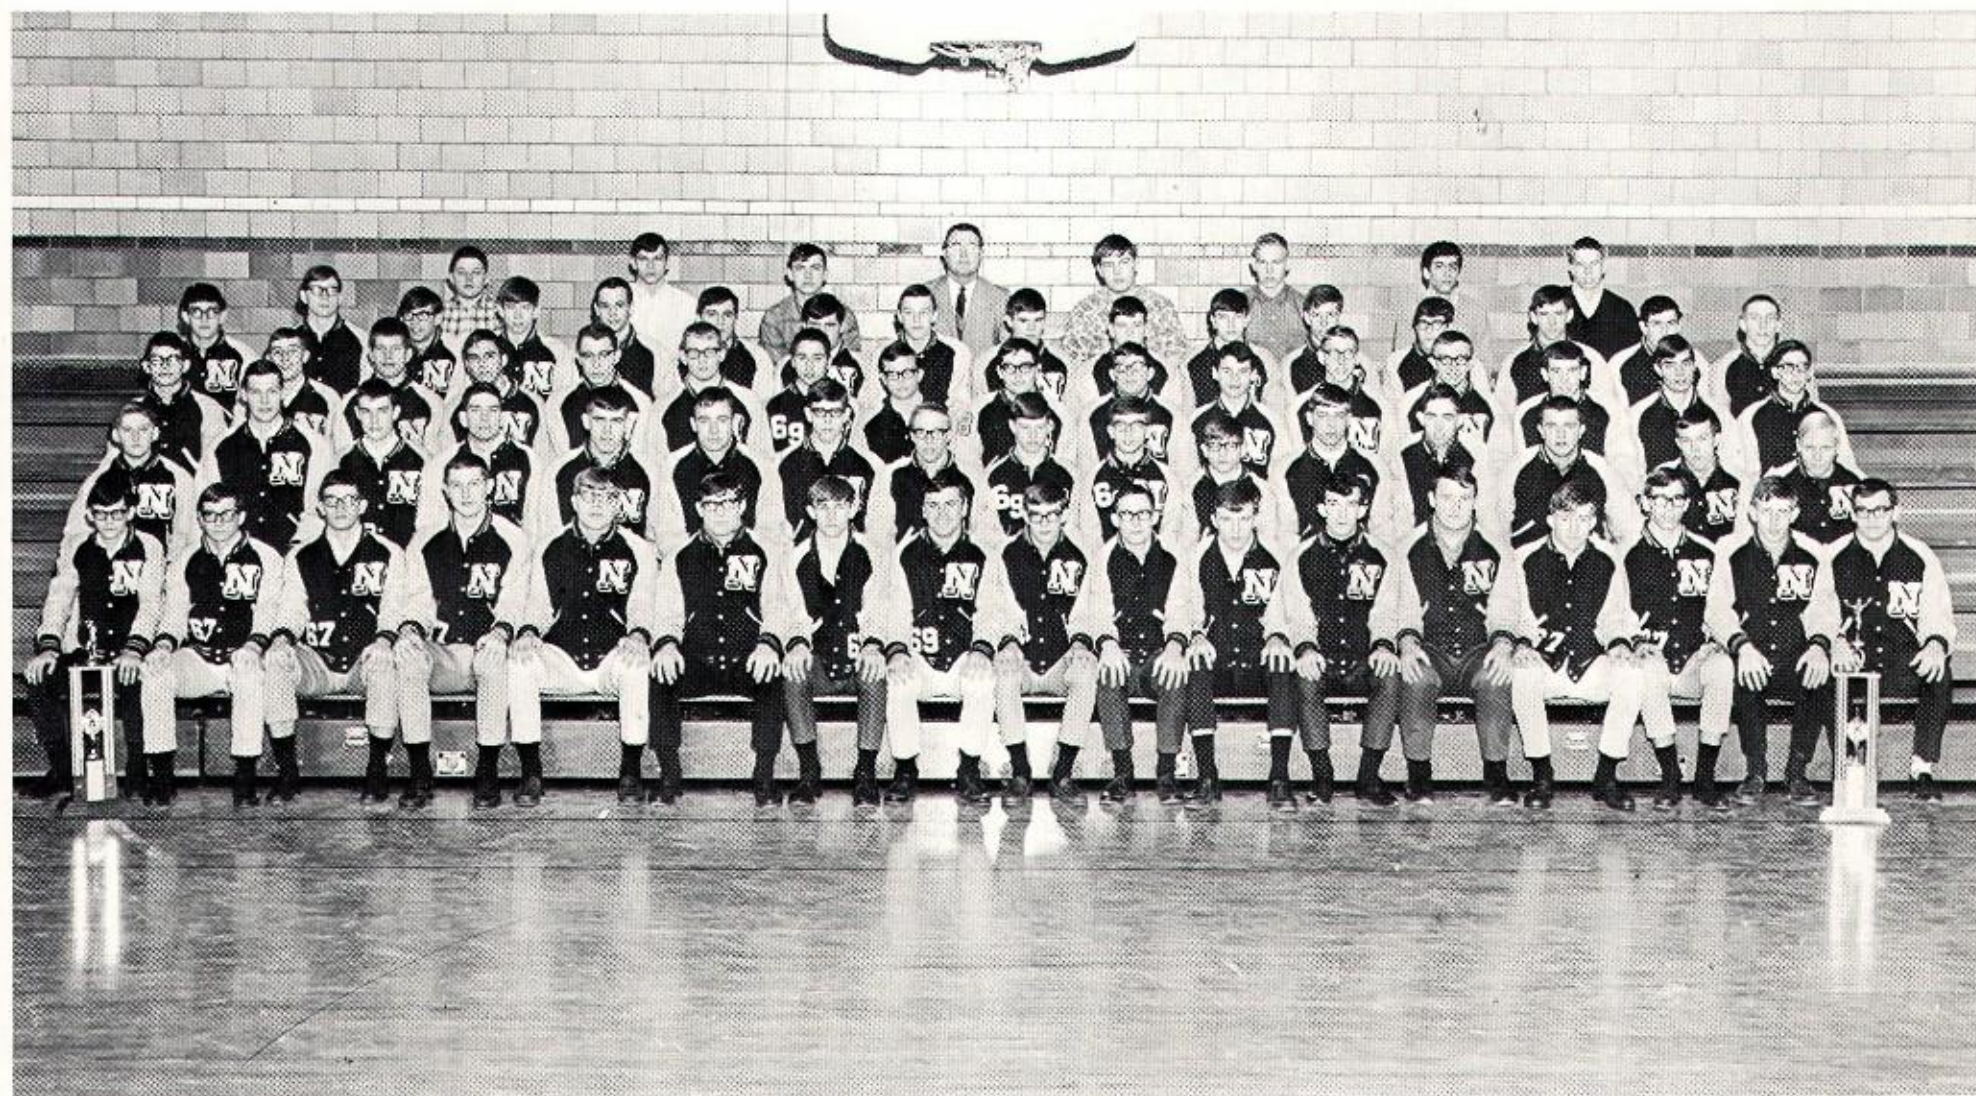

As a significant contribution to the total athletic program at N.H.S., the "N" Club purchased all letters, numerals, and other similar awards. Also, in cooperation with the Boosters, the membership presented a $150 scholarship. Selection of the scholarship recipient was based on athletic excellence, scholastic promise, personal integrity, and financial need.

Besides projects of service, the social activities of the year were highlighted by two "N" Club-Tri-Hi-Y Fun Nights, events which provided much enjoyable relaxation.

Highlights G.A.A. Activity Calendar

Each Wednesday after school, members of the Girl's Athletic Association met under the auspices of Mrs. Day. With its activities centered around the motto, "Sports Activity for Every Girl," the Association provided the opportunity for girls to participate in soccer, bowling, basketball, volleyball, table tennis, archery, golf, softball, badminton, and tennis.

In addition to sporting activities, on February 14 and 15 the G.A.A. presented to the public its annual Dance Concert. This year, "Big, Wide, Wonderful World" was the theme of the gala production. Another significant event on the G.A.A. calendar was the G.A.A. Cotton Ball, "Sugar 'n Spice," which was a semi-formal dance held April 14. Later in the spring, the year's activities were culminated by the Mother-Daughter Tea. At this gathering various members were presented with awards in recognition of their total G.A.A. point accumulations.

Paris in the Springtime' Week

Composed of 110 French students interested in learning more about the language, culture, and history of France, the French Club completed its seventh year as an organization at N.H.S. Early in the year, Miss Denehy, adviser, gave members an opportunity to select pen pals living on the Continent. Throughout the year many members corresponded in French with their respective pen pals.

"Paris in the Springtime" week, April 17-21, was the most memorable event on the club's calendar. During this week members decorated the halls of N.H.S. with colorful, French-oriented posters and presented a serial to the student body by means of the P.A. system.

Other activities included the sponsoring of a post-game dance. Funds received from the dance were used to purchase the Christmas food baskets which the club presented to needy families in Henry County. In May the year's activities were completed with a picnic held with the J.C.L.

Welcome 50 New Members

Boasting a membership of 106 classical language enthusiasts, the Junior Classical League enjoyed an active year under the direction of Mrs. Johnston. At the formal initiation ceremony in October, old members donned togas to welcome nearly 50 new students into the club.

With interest running high, the League undertook many activities, most memorable of which was the Roman Banquet held in May. At this traditional banquet, senior members were honored. Other noteworthy activities included a Christmas party, the Roman Games, and a spring picnic with the French Club. In addition, at the January meeting Mrs. Johnston showed the slides of her trip to Bulgaria.

As services to the school and community, the J.C.L. contributed to the WTOD Penny Pitch and to the '67 "Buckeye". To raise funds necessary for the completion of their many projects and services, the club sponsored two dances during the year.

F.H.A. Plans, Promotes Style Show

With Mrs. F. Russell as adviser, the Future Homemakers of America met the third Tuesday of each month to undertake activities which exemplified the club's purpose: the improvement of each member's personal, family, and community living.

April 26 marked the date of the annual Style Show, the most outstanding event on the club's calendar. With their mothers in attendance, members modeled clothing which they had made during the year.

Other activities at the monthly meetings consisted of a Halloween party; a Christmas party; two social picnics; and a panel discussion entitled, "Morals and Manners." Also, at the March meeting, the Reverend W. Egbert spoke to the group.

Besides the club's local meetings, many members attended the Fall County Rally in Hamler and the Spring County Rally in McClure. Representing Napoleon High School at the State F.H.A. Meeting held in Columbus April 7-8 were seven locally-selected delegates.

Row One: M. Rickenberg, President; B. Waisner, Vice-President; S. Walker, Secretary; K. Palmer, Treasurer. Row Two: K. Delventhal, N. Blasingim, Recreation Leaders; B. Fruth, Historian; Mrs. Russell, J. Rettig, Parliamentarian; J. Ernest, News Reporter.

Debaters Gain Skill, Experience

Concentrating on a rebuilding program, the Debate Team worked throughout the year to develop the fundamental skill and technique required for competition in formal debate and individual events. To gain practical experience, the 15 debaters entered tournaments at Start, Perrysburg, Sylvania, and Fostoria. Also, Miss Alberts, adviser, arranged two exchange debates with Defiance.

Marianne Bischoff and Debbie Creager, affirmative, and Darlene Bevelhymmer and Liz Neville, negative, composed the Varsity Debate Team while Doug Daniels, Heather Fortner, Cindy Gorey, Peggy Haase, and Sandy Von Deylen competed in the novice division. Participating in individual events were Cathy Bogert, Doug Daniels, Jeff De-tray, Denise Fortner, Terri King, and Margo Vajen.

Library Club Recovers Old Books

Recovering many of the worn books of the school library was one of the significant contributions of the service-minded Library Club. Meeting the first Tuesday of each month, the 22 members also made posters and book covers for display on the various bulletin boards in the halls. Working diligently under the direction of Mrs. Jones, the club compiled bibliography lists as still another service.

Aside from the above projects, a spring picnic was held for the membership. On Recognition Day all members were presented awards based on the number of years of service in the organization.

I.A. Club Visits Chicago Museum

With membership open to any boy interested in learning more about the various techniques involved in the field of industrial arts, the Industrial Arts Club met the third Tuesday of each month. In addition to the regularly scheduled meetings on Monday evenings members were allowed to use the shop facilities to pursue individual interests.

Throughout the year, each of the 12 members worked on many different shop projects. Examples of such projects included the building of cedar chests, T.V. stands, picnic tables, and gun racks. Assisting the boys in their work were industrial arts instructors Mr. Freeman, Mr. Hetrick, and Mr. Stuckey.

In the spring the club journeyed to Chicago to visit the Museum of Science and Industry. There members viewed the methods of industry as they are practically applied. To raise the necessary revenue to defray the expenses of the year's activities, the club sponsored a post-game dance.

D.E.C.A. Garners 7 District Berths

Composed of 15 members from the Distributive Education Class, the Napoleon Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America met weekly to train its members in marketing and distribution.

During the week of February 6-11, each member worked on a window display in a downtown store. Steve Bischoff's display received the first-place award.

February 15 marked the date of the District II D.E.C.A. contests held in Bowling Green. Seven Napoleon students received recognition for their performances in district competition. Sandy Orthwein and Donna Soals went on to represent the Napoleon Chapter at the state contests. Mr. Flory served as adviser for the group.

Row One: S. Kruse, L. Sines, D. Soals, S. Orthwein, Vice-President, P. Polker, Mr. Flory, adviser. Row Two: S. Bischoff, President, J. Brown, D. Davis, G. Schmidt, J. Collier, J. Heaston, Treasurer, R. Meinen, Secretary, G. Hoover.

V.I.C. Journeys to State Capitol

Consisting of 27 members from the Diversified Cooperative Training Class, the Napoleon Chapter of the Vocational-Industrial Clubs of America met periodically under the guidance of Mr. Mossing (first semester) and Mr. Snyder (second semester).

One of the major activities undertaken by the club was a trip to Columbus to observe the state legislature in session. Also, late in April the members sponsored their annual Employer-Employee Banquet.

As services, the V.I.C. contributed to the Napoleon Red Cross and the '67 "Buckeye". Funds for club projects were raised by the sponsoring of a post-game dance.

Hall Monitors

Early in the year, Mr. Johnson, principal, chose 16 girls to serve as hall monitors. Selection was based on the availability of a free period and on the willingness of each individual to serve. During every period throughout the day, monitors were stationed in both the first and second floor halls of the main building.

Greeting and aiding visitors was one of the main duties assumed by this group. They also performed many errands within the school for the faculty and administration. Constituting another area of responsibility was the collection and distribution of the absence lists.

Projectionists

During their free periods throughout the year, the 16 members of the Projectionist Club showed over 230 16mm films in the classrooms of N.H.S. As an additional aid to both the faculty and the student body, the projectionists also operated tape recorders and set up slide projectors, record players, and other audio-visual equipment.

Frequently, school clubs and community organizations were provided with similar services. Mr. Flory, adviser of the group, supervised the shipping and receiving of films and trained members in the operation of the audio-visual equipment.

Office Help

Three senior secretarial students from the Office Practice Class were selected early in the year and given the opportunity to gain practical office experience by aiding Mrs. Hathaway in the principal's office. Some of the tasks involved in the daily routine of the office help staff included preparing absence lists, posting student attendance records, answering telephones, typing, and operating mimeograph and ditto machines.

Working in an actual office situation, the students were able to obtain the self-confidence, good judgment, and sense of responsibility necessary for the development of a competent secretary.

Sitting: Marsha Snyder. Standing: Jean Ernest, Joyce Fahringer.

A Truly Memorable Event

Will we ever forget that memorable day, October 21, 1966, when the 22nd annual Homecoming was observed? Enhanced by balmy weather, the 1966 Homecoming Parade once again initiated the Homecoming festivities. Featured in the colorful parade were the class floats, the N.H.S. Marching Band, and radiant Queen Karen Leaders and her regal court. An added attraction of this year's parade was the appearance of the cheerleaders in Larry Egbert's 1940 hearse.

Immediately preceding the evening gridiron battle between the Napoleon Wildcats and the Bowling Green Bobcats was the traditional coronation ceremony. After the queen and attendants had been escorted by their respective fathers across Loose Field, Mr. E. A. Wheaton, new Superintendent of Napoleon City Schools, crowned Miss Karen Leaders Homecoming Queen 1966. Queen Karen and her court then took their places on the royal throne and awaited the opening kickoff.

After a first half of fine football, the N.H.S. Marching Band presented a special half-time show which, for the first time, accented the dance theme, "Under the Sweetheart Tree." Upon the Band's recession from the field, the first place float was announced. Elation and disappointment were reflected in many faces as the industrious juniors garnered top honors with the theme, "Let's Seal Up a Victory".

During the exciting second half, the Nap eleven forged ahead to a 24-16 lead. The eight point bulge was nearly insufficient as B.G.'s Tom Vogtberger brought the crowd to their feet with a near touchdown run in the final 30 seconds. However, Bob Fruchey's tackle on the 15-yard line gave the Wildcats their seventh straight victory.

Having as a theme, "Under the Sweetheart Tree," the Homecoming Dance climaxed the evening's activities. With the gym decorated quite appropriately and with soft music furnished by John Hartman and his band, the atmosphere was one of joy and excitement. Finally, the attendants gracefully made their entrance. Smiling and composed, Queen Karen, escorted by Dave Helberg, followed her royal court and led the Grand March, another added attraction of Homecoming '66. Who can say the 1966 Homecoming was not a truly memorable event?

Jerry Lange, Cindy Buckenmeyer, Marsha Willeman, and Dan Westhoven enjoy the festive atmosphere of "Under the Sweetheart Tree."

Queen Karen and Dave Helberg officially begin the 1966 Homecoming Dance with the traditional Queen's Dance.

While dancing, the royal court and their escorts seem to be engrossed in the melodious music of John Hartman's Band.

shaw's "Pygmalion," April 5, 7

Eliza's first taste of social life, Mrs. Higgins's "at home," was a novel experience.

"Don't you give me no lip, Eliza!" warns Alfred Doolittle.

The ambassador's Garden Party was a marvelous affair and a total success for Eliza and Higgins.

"Buy a flower off a poor girl, Captain," Eliza pleads.

"Move along there double quick," the Constable admonishes Eliza and Freddy.

G.A.A. Dance Concert Takes Tour

SENIOR STEWARDESSES. Row One: J. Emmel, N. Parks, P. Cordes, J. Williamson, E. Austermiller, C. Collier, K. Hahn, D. Meyer, S. Johnson, K. Leaders. Row Two: A. Vocke, M. Cannon, B. Bokerman, M. Snyder, J. Fahringer, M. Stevens, R. Spitler, M. Vajen, D. Gessner, T. Witt. Row Three: C. Hockman, H. Thoher, L. Bargman, C. Knepley, I. Suydam, B. Waisner, C. Rickenberg, E. Pilliod, J. Hahn, M. D. Austermiller.

In Holland we are greeted by a little Dutch girl, Jeanne Emmel, and a little Dutch boy, Kathy Hahn.

"Big, Wide, Wonderful World" was the theme of the annual G.A.A. Dance Concert held February 14 and 15. Over 200 girls were involved in the Dance Concert, which has been an annual event for the last 22 years. Introducing and concluding the program were 37 senior girls who portrayed stewardesses and carried colorful flags depicting foreign countries.

Dud Reiser, master of ceremonies and pilot for the round-the-world trip, guided the tour through such fascinating lands as China, Holland, England, Italy, and France, while providing additional entertainment along the way. Included in the excursion was a journey to an imaginary land of dwarfs and an elephant hunt in darkest Africa. On one of the many brief stops, the washerwoman of Seville, Switzerland, entertained the audience of make-believe travelers. Upon returning to the United States, the audience witnessed a harrowing street fight in New York and a collegiate football game at Northwestern.

Mrs. Grazia Day directed the program while G.A.A. members Bebe Bokerman, Cheryl Knepley, and Emilie Pilliod coordinated the itinerary.

'Big, Wide, Wonderful World'

At the North Pole, penguins Gwen Vajen, Cindy Buckenmeyer, Jane Kruse, and Pam Dennis are on hand to greet the travelers.

During a brief stop in Africa, we watch the natives, Sheila Overhulse, Jean Russell, Chris Burke, and Sandy Meineke, capture a pink elephant, Peggy Cline.

The G.A.A. tour of the world was under the supervision of Mrs. Grazia Day with Dud Reiser as master of ceremonies.

While in Germany, we visit a circus with jolly clowns portrayed by Nancy Jones, Cheri Glick, Debbie Campbell, Cheri Freeman, and Janis Huston, holding Sandy Buckenmeyer and Vicki Helberg.

A humorous interlude in the international tour comes in visiting the washerwomen of Seville, Switz., Nancy Parks, Sue Austermiller, Mary Dell Austermiller, and Cheryl Knepley.

Dance Theme, 'Sugar 'n Spice,' Featured at G.A.A. Cottonball

Colorful lollipops provide a festive background as couples relax during intermission.

"Sugar 'N Spice" was the theme of the annual G.A.A. Cottonball, held April 14 from 9-12 p.m. in the high school gym. This candyland theme was emphasized by an awning constructed of crepe paper streamers and extending from the catwalk. The names of the attending couples were inscribed on large suckers in the theme colors of pink, purple, and yellow.

The feature attraction in the candyland atmosphere was an authentic candyshop, complete with awning and gingerbread roof. Candy was purchased and refreshments were served from this tiny shop. The final touches accentuating the theme were the table decorations, which consisted of yellow table cloths and miniature gold scales that held colorful tissue paper flowers.

The Quarter Tones, a musical combo from Defiance, supplied music for the affair. The 1967 G.A.A. Cottonball was culminated with the song "Exodus," which was dedicated to the graduating senior girls.

The dance floor is crowded this year as over 160 couples attend the G.A.A. Cottonball.

Couples examine the colorful dance programs and admire the delicately-crafted candy scale.

Providing lively music for the gala affair are the Quarter Tones, a combo from Defiance.

Purchasing candy from the miniature candy shop offers added enjoyment to the couples attending "Sugar 'N Spice."

Escorts obtaining refreshments is an oft-repeated scene throughout the evening of the 1967 G.A.A. Cottonball.

1967 Prom — 'Sea Of Enchantment'

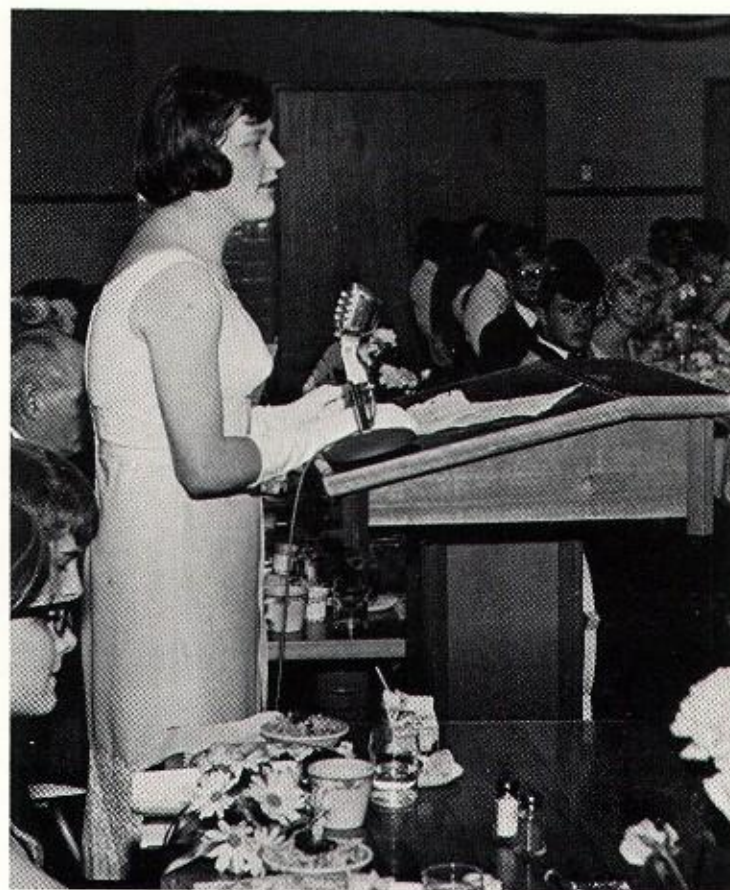

Festively dressed couples enter the school to begin a memorable evening at the 1967 Jr.-Sr. Prom.

Sitting at the speakers table this year are Tom Wesche, Senior Class President; Krys Dietrick; Darlene Bevelhymer, Junior Class President; and Gary Haas.

The gay atmosphere of Sea of Enchantment is evidenced by the happy faces of the banquet goers.

Serving as Master of Ceremonies for the Sea Voyage is Junior Todd Elliott.

Sophomore servers Bill Meyers and Toni Delventhal escort Chris Weasal and Pat Jastal into the Sea of Enchantment.

Couples enjoy dancing under dangling fish hanging from the fishnet ceiling.

Couples relax for a moment while enjoying a refreshing cup of punch and conversation.

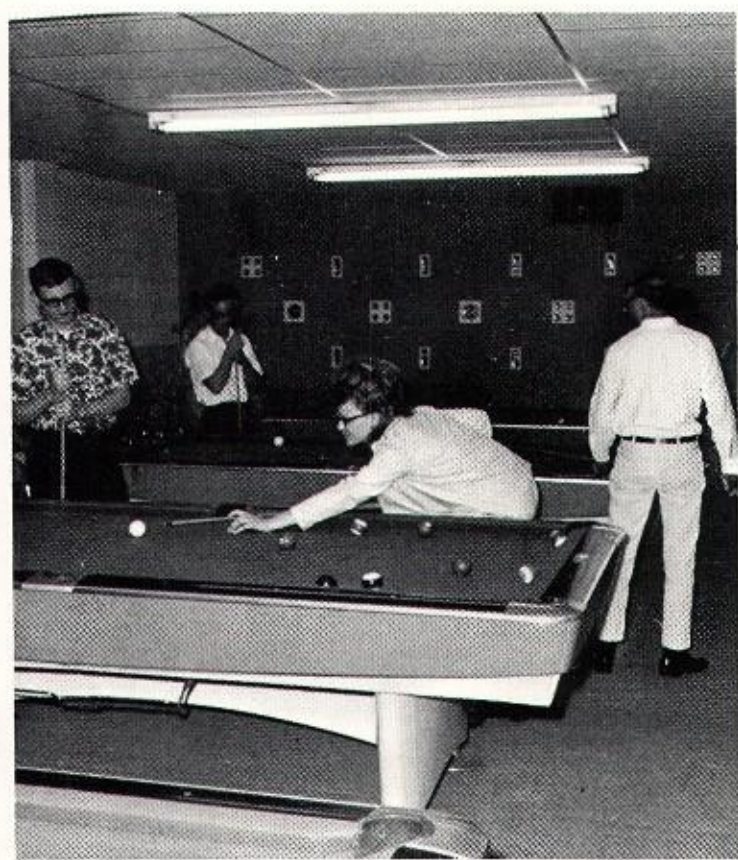

Bus Widmer's Band, playing from the sunken ship, provides the music for this gayla affair.

Many junior and senior boys found that it takes great patience to play pool with a girl, especially at 4 o'clock in the morning.

Breakfast marks the end of an unforgettable 1967 Prom.

During the record hop, Bob Kelly, popular disc-jockey from WTOD, assists the junior parents by reading the names drawn for the door-prizes.

144 Proud Seniors Receive

Kathy Hahn walks across the stage after receiving her diploma as Seniors Maurice Reimund and Becky Gilliland wait for Mr. Mossing to call their names.

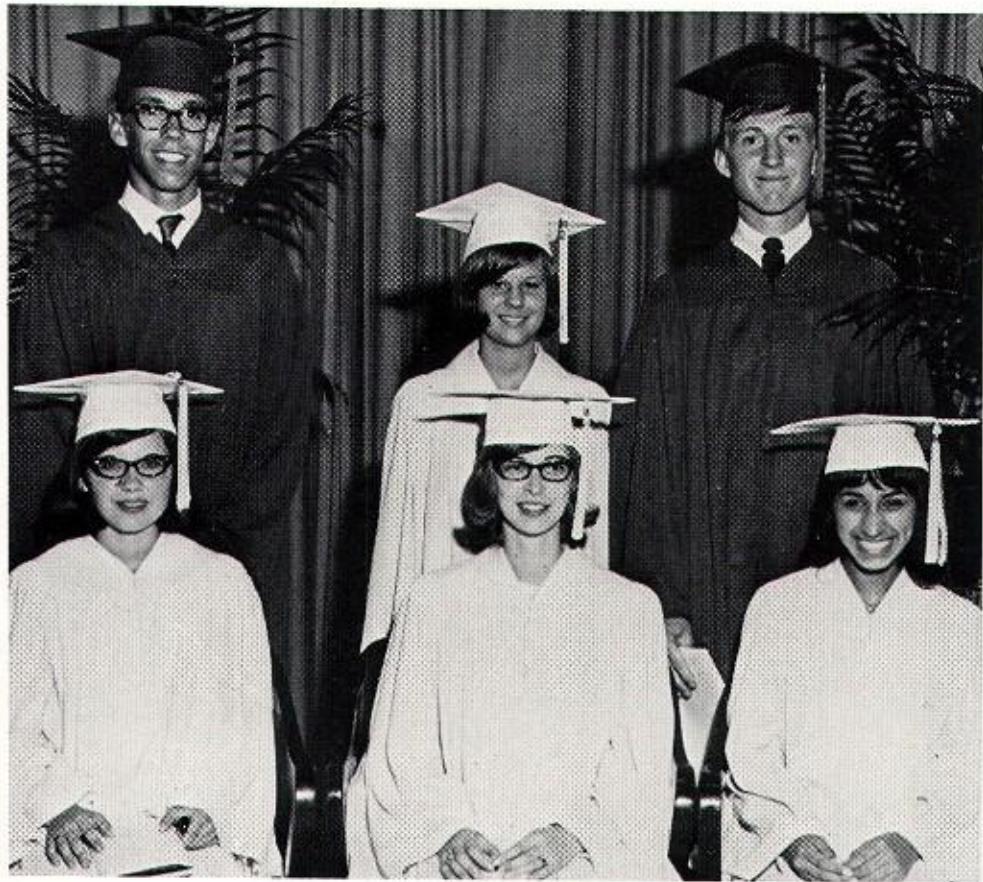

Mr. Earl Richardson, President of the Napoleon Public School Board of Education, presents Neal Thomas with his diploma.

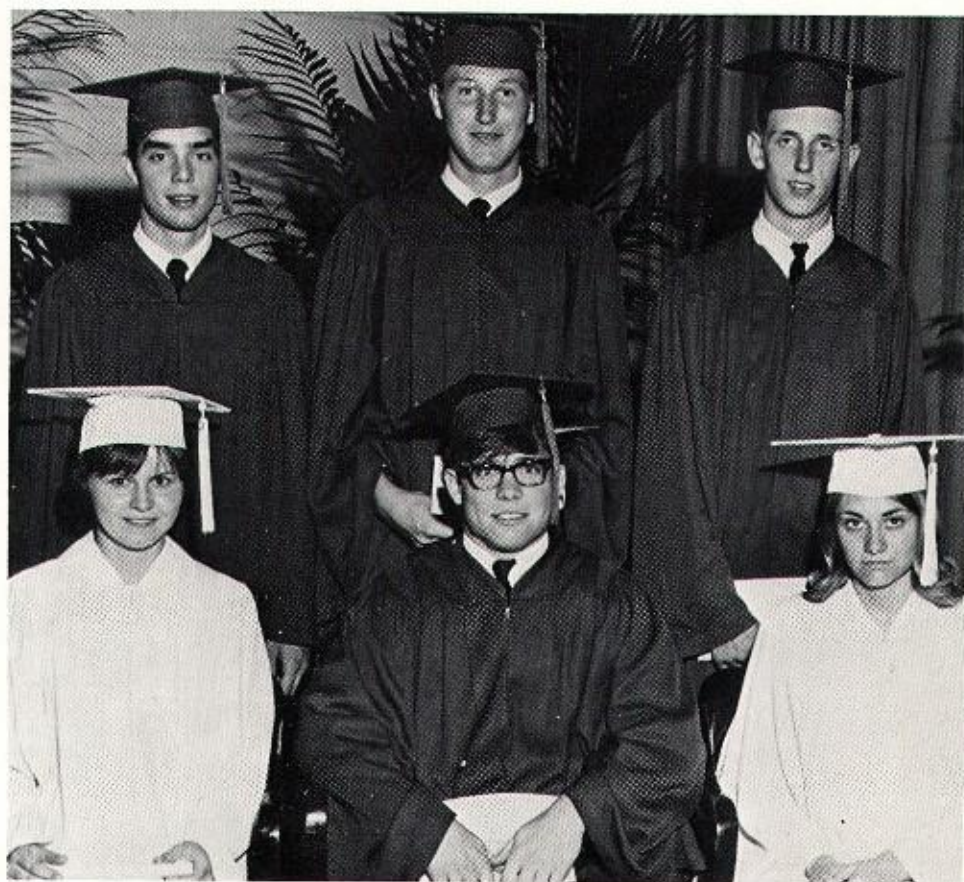

Anxious moments of anticipation are experienced by the graduates as they wait to cross the stage with their diplomas.
